

LOGGING IN . . . Louis Bromley (seated right) fills out entry papers while second contestant (right) holds one of the trophies that will be awarded in the Handicap Trophy Dash, a non-stop air race from Torrance Airport to Warner Springs and return. Starters and officials in the Second

Airport Day event from left are Emery Stromberg, chairman; Frank Allen, FAA official; Donald Hunter, official; Henry Friel, South Bay Exchange Club president; and Bill Murphy, El Segundo Exchange Club president; and Bill Beckman, race official.

GIVE FACTS . . . Lee Mountain and Harry Lauder, Vickers Inc. advertising men, show one of their pumps manufactured by the local company for the aircraft industry to visitors at Airport Day show. The Vickers booth was one of the many furnished by industrial concerns.

AIR MONSTER . . . Crowds are dwarfed under the nacelle and prop of a giant transport at Torrance Airport during Airport Day show Saturday. Visitors found many new and interesting planes and displays by aircraft companies in second annual event.

READY FOR RACE . . . Principal Myrl Ruppel, who placed third in last year's "Airport Day" race, is shown here just before take-off yesterday on the flight to Warner Hot Springs and return.

(Herald Photo)

FEDERAL DISPLAY . . . The local office of the F.A.A. entered a booth for the first time at the Airport Day celebration held Saturday at Torrance Airport. Many of the instruments used in flight control were shown to area visitors.

JET AGE . . . These youngsters stand awed by a jet aircraft in the display furnished by Ryan Aeronautical Co. Many new aircraft and advance features of the industry was shown at Torrance Airport Saturday.

NEW AIRCRAFT . . . Visitors at the Second Annual Airport Day show held at Torrance Airport Saturday found many interesting features on display. This Tucker seaplane was inspected by most of the large crowd that took in the event. (Herald Photo)

HOSTS OPENING . . . Hanley Rogers, district manager of Diversified Mutual Funds, Ltd., will be host at open house celebration today at new offices at 1334 Post Ave. from 2 to 5 p.m. Several hundred local and Los Angeles guests are expected to attend the affair.

FASCINATED . . . Future airmen look over spaceman and TF 194 jet furnished by the U.S. Air Force as one of the exhibits in the Second Annual Airport Day event held Saturday at Torrance Airport. Crowds of youngsters and adults braved heat to take in the show. (Herald Photo)

CALLED TO DEFENSE . . . The Douglas C-133 Cargomaster pictured above and scheduled to be christened Miss City of Torrance as part of the Airport Day celebration was unable to take part in the show due to airlift requirements. The U.S.A.F. announced with regrets that the world's largest aircraft was called into active service and was not able to take part in the Torrance festivities.